Our Resident Lama will perform the 16 Arhat Puja on these days especially for the ANNUAL GRAND SPONSOR. During these pujas, there will be lamp offerings made on behalf of the ANNUAL GRAND SPONSORS. It is said that during these Four Great Auspicious Days, any meritorious deeds and offerings are multiplied a million times.

- Performing the Three Red Deities Puja of Sakyapa Tradition on a specific auspicious Thursday morning of every month.

Our present Resident lama will perform the special puja of the three Red Deities which is special in Sakyapa Tradition and is performed for magnetizing Influence and Wealth. This ritual is especially good for Businesses and Heads of family. Throughout the year, until the next Vesak Day in 2012, at least 12 Three Red Deities pujas would have been performed for the ANNUAL GRAND SPONSORS.

- Daily Tara Pujas and Dharma Protectors Pujas (Mahakala Kangso) are performed by our Resident lama and dedicated to the ANNUAL GRAND SPONSORS to ward off daily spiritual and worldly obstacles that one's business or family is bound to encounter every day. Daily activities become smooth and protected from harm's way

During these days of degeneration age, beings are normally burden with heavy negative karmic propensities such as falling into financial difficulties, encountering disasters, 'picking up' diseases and generally getting into harm's way etc.

However with these spiritual activities being relentlessly performed in our centre on the behalf of the Sponsors, continuous blessing will be received, and we look forward a wish-fulfilling year for all of them.

It is a very rare occasion where conditions allow us to organize such events throughout the year for all fortunate sponsor participants. Your name will be inscribed on the List for Annual Grand Sponsors for a year for all the Pujas mentioned

We look forwards for your participation in the coming year as a ANNUAL GRAND SPONSOR

Thanks for your kind support and participation!
Happy Vesak to all!!
